| Justin Lloyd Price, |) | Case No. 1:18-cr-038 |
| |) | |
| Defendant. |) | |

On November 1, 2018, the court entered an order: (1) granting defendant's request for a furlough and adopting the parties' stipulation for pretrial release; (2) releasing defendant on November 6, 2018, with instructions to report to and reside at Prairie St. John's treatment facility in Fargo, North Dakota; and (3) directing that defendant surrender to the United States Marshal's office in Fargo upon his discharge from Prairie St. John's.

On November 13, 2018, the Pretrial Services Office advised the court that Prairie St. John's had deemed defendant ineligible for treatment following an evaluation and is planning to discharge him from its facility on or about November 16, 2018.

The court finds little value in allowing defendant to remain at Prairie St. John's until November 16, 2018, given that it has deemed him ineligible for treatment. Accordingly, the court vacates its order granting defendant's request for a furlough and adopting the parties' stipulation for pretrial release.

Defendant shall be remanded to the custody of the United States Marshall pending final disposition of this matter. Rather than having defendant report to the United States Marshal's office, the United States Marshal shall pick defendant up at Prairie St. John's.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 13th day of November, 2018.
